Discussion- Old 2.906: If a Sister should receive a cumulative GPA between a 2.0 and a 2.5 they will go on academic probation. Sisters on academic probation may not hold an office or chair nor have a little sister or brother. Sisters on academic probation must periodically meet with the Vice President of Membership to discuss their grades of that semester. Should a Sister's cumulative GPA return about a 2.5 the next semester, then they will no longer be on probation. Should a Sister not be able to raise their GPA above a 2.5 they may not hold Active status in the chapter. Should a Sister's academics performance be affected by a learning disability then the chapter will make decisions on a case-by-case basis. A sister may only be on academic probation for one semester during their tenure at the university without further discipline from the Membership Committee.

Discussion- New 2.906: If a Sister should receive a cumulative GPA between a 2.0 and a 2.5 they will go on academic probation. Sisters on academic probation may not hold an office or chair nor have a little sister or brother. Sisters on academic probation must periodically meet with the Vice President of Membership to discuss their grades of that semester. Should a Sister's cumulative GPA rise above a 2.5 then she will no longer be on probation. Should a Sister not be able to raise their GPA above a 2.5 she may not hold Active status in the chapter. The aforementioned rule will be upheld with the exception of Sisters in the membership class of Spring 2006 and previous. These sisters are required to achieve and uphold a 2.5 semester GPA to be reinstated as full Active members. Sisters on probation will be allotted additional absences in both committee and chapter functions to promote a greater focus on academics. Should a Sister's academics performance be affected by a learning disability then the chapter will make decisions on a case-by-case basis. A sister may only be on academic probation for one semester, or two semesters if a sister is in or previous the MC class of Spring 2006, during their tenure at the university without further discipline from the Membership Committee.
