Fundraising: The Valentine's Day fundraiser is this week on Tuesday and Wednesday in the Campus Center. Everyone must sign up for at least two shifts. The schedule goes with the class schedule. The fundraiser is a lollipop game; the color on the bottom of the stick corresponds to a specific prize. Please remember good table etiquette; don't eat at the table and don't stand in front of it.

Correspondence: Anyone going to Northerns please meet with me after so we can figure out who is driving with whom. If you are going to districts you need to pay Nicole because she is going to write a check from the sisterhood. Also, everyone who signed up for a pen pal with Marist will get one except for a few, but Kutztown has contacted me for pen pals as well, so you'll get one soon.

Reception chair charges are read by Sister Gray

- Get a Big Y card
- Use only one block of cheese at a reception
- No apple juice, use powdered drinks like Hi-C
- Invest in a new table cloth for the table
- Buy store brands, they are cheaper.

Sisters Bogdan and Cheung will be the new receptions co-chairs.

The Belly dancing class for the sisterhood will be March 14th in the evening in the Campus Center. It will probably be between $5- $8.

Just a note to anyone that is traveling to really talk up the TBS quilts at Precincts. Sister Nailos will have it done soon. Also talk up the Sarah Rose quilt as well.

Service: This semester we will be condensing the service projects because the group thing didn't work out too well. The Girl Scout project will be done this spring as well as working with the middle school/ high school kids. Sister Cheung is in charge of flyering, and this semester everyone will need to flyer for at least one concert, or maybe all of them, we haven't decided. More info coming soon.

Membership: For the Valentines Day activity we will be going to see Music and Lyrics, that is Wednesday.

Sister Kalafatis moves to hold the tea on February 19th at 5:00PM/
Sister Meg Burke seconds.
Discussion, motion passes.

Yesterday, the membership board met and talked about many things about the membership packet. The hazing policy will be in the packet as well as in a waiver that the membership board will write, and which the MCs will have to sign. The MCs will need to have their books on them at all times as respect toward the sisterhood. Verbal quizzing this semester doesn't necessarily need to be all recitation, but more for content, like putting things into their own words. The written quizzes will then count for more and still be "write out the first purpose..." etc. There will be no make-up quizzes, but instead they will be cumulative quizzes. There will be no phone or IM quizzes, unless there are extenuating circumstances. There will be 2nd vote interview panel. At the meeting we also decided not to tell the MCs about degrees, just that they are busy. We also specified what information is considered National/Sorority History, etc. The packet has guiding questions so they know exactly what they will need to know. In a little bit we will be voting on the Alcohol Policy. The committee also decided that the MCs will have to do a Final Recital, which will hopefully be a joint thing.

Sister Kalafatis moves to instate the academic policy as proposed for the semester.

Sister Warden withdraws her second.
Sister Zarba withdraws her motion.

Constitution: There will be a workshop on voting procedures Tuesday February 27th at 9:00 before vote. The committee will be meeting sometime before that to prepare for it.

Groove and Funk: The committee met last week and started the step show. Those that are going to districts should make every attempt to go to the meetings because you'll be the ones performing it. We should be having a meeting this week. Yay!
