VPS Report:

I still need people to help with honor band. It's Feb. 2nd and there will be donuts. We need people to help out with music audition dates which are Feb. 2, Feb. 16, March 8th and , they are all day 8-5 in shifts. The first one is Feb. 2nd. We will be helping to guide them around. Meet in 149 for your shift (not just in the morning, whenever your shift begins). You will be required to do 4 service nights. Annie will be sending out an email later that shows what counts towards service hours. Please go to as many as you can. Relay for Life (18 hour walk, goal rising at least $100) is Friday April 18th on the track at Amherst College: more information to come. Everyone try to help out in any way that they can. Service Committee meetings are Wednesday at 6pm. Flyering Nights will be happening and there is more information to come. We are going to try chalking side walks for concerts (one sister to each concerts and chalk designated areas); Annie will be seeking approval from Fine Arts Center Faculty. We will be having the FAC BBQ again during juries. All FAC'D UP will probably be turned into a joint thing- details to come. Some of our goals this semester are to finish the power point, do Project Protect Music, Help Sort Music, and hopefully getting the music stand rack out of 136. At the first committee meeting we will figure out when that is going to be. Please let Annie know any new ideas and/or expanding upon these ideas.

Fundraising:

Committee meetings will be at 6:45pm in the Blue Wall after Concert Band. For Valentines Day we are Cupid- delivering candy to FAC people. We will possibly be doing singing telegrams (to be done by Kate, Michele, and Shari), selling chocolate lollipops (good for concert band). We may use singing telegrams during travel season, as in sending an email out asking for birthdays and singing to them. We really want to sell letters, pen, pencils when we are traveling. We are going to look more into playing concerts for money at senior homes. First Committee meeting is the 2nd week of classes.
